“ I met Chris on my first job out of college at Stonebridge. He was one of the folks helping me adjust my new role. He was kind, patient, helpful, and there was no shortage of laughable moments. He was great at making you feel welcomed and at ease (even in a sometimes stressful environment). You just couldn't help but smile, even if you weren't initially in the mood. The world was a better place with Chris in it. You will be missed, brother.

“ I met Chris when I began working at H&P in 2008. We immediately hit it off as he went out of his way to introduce himself and make me feel welcome. I will miss our breakfasts at Duffy’s, but cherish the ones we had. Godspeed, Chris, you will be missed. I send my deepest condolences to your family.

With sympathy,

“ I met Chris while working at Helmerich & Payne (H&P). He always provided the best customer service, and quickly became my go to guy.

One day Chris and I were chatting about religion and he asked if I had been saved. I had not. He asked if I wanted to be and I jumped on the opportunity. Chris and I went into a supply room closet, and right then and there he saved me and we prayed together.

Throughout the years I've enjoyed receiving Chris' "Thoughts" via email. They always lifted my heart and provoked me to learn more about Christ and the Bible. Chris always ended his emails with:

Read, Pray, Listen...

My deepest sympathies to Chris' family and friends. He will be greatly missed.

“ I met Chris on my first day on the job at Stonebridge. Little did I know at the time that I had met a lifelong friend. He literally was the kindest most caring person that I know. He was always smiling and made me laugh every day that I knew him. I will truly miss him and I share my deepest, most sincere, sympathies with his family and friends.
