“ Doug will be missed greatly by his Lollman and “Landmark” families. He was a great friend and employee with whom we felt a “special” relationship. He worked hard and always had a smile and story to tell. We want you to know that we will miss his “dropping” by to visit and working on his “fireworks” pamphlets. Our heartfelt sympathy is with you, Ken, Karel, and the Lollman family.

“ Dad always had us working whether it was picking up trailer loads of melons to sell; delivering newspapers; picking up semi loads of Mexican imports to sell; making and selling fireworks; making omelettes; opening an ice cream shop; building firework stands; and the list goes on. If there is one thing you knew to do in our family, it was you had to work. And we did! Whew! :)

“ He was a good Dad. Every time we went out to eat as we were walking into the restaurant he would pat my backside because he knew it embarrassed me, so i would try not to walk in front of him, we played this little game every time we went to eat or into a public place. I will miss him so much.

“ Every time we went to eat at a Mexican restaurant he would try to speak Spanish to the waiters and waitresses. His Spanish sounds about as good as Peggy Hill's from King of the Hill. It was always funny and embarrassing at the same time. I will miss it.
