Marie Sparks was born on Sunday, August 13, 1939 in Scotland, Arkansas, the daughter of Oswald and Mattie (Jones) Garner. She died on Friday, October 23, 2020 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was 81 years of age.

Marie was raised in South Coffeyville, Oklahoma, near the Oklahoma and Kansas border and attended Lenapah Oklahoma Schools. She married Robert "Bob" Sparks in Fayetteville, Arkansas on November 8, 1991. In Marie's younger years, she worked as a waitress and cook at the Silver Castle, Cliff and Loretta's, Family Diner and Duffy's. Marie was a born caregiver and did it so very well! She cared for her Mother for several years and raised her great grandson Derek, instilling the love and tenderness of God and her love for old gospel hymns. She enjoyed Spoiling her family daily with good home cooked meals. Marie loved to garage sale and go to thrift stores. She enjoyed going camping and fishing when she and Bob where healthy. Singing and playing old cassette tapes while piddling around the house was her idea of a great time. Marie was sweet, kind, and very content and happy in her life. In her last several years Marie lived at Cedar Crest Nursing Home. She stole several hearts while there. Always looking out for the other residents and making people laugh and smile with her quick and witty humor and her genuine precious smile! Always singing or humming a hymn she knew. “ Momma I miss you so much already!!! You where so amazingly strong, patient, forgiving, and kind! You have made such a positive impact on so many people over the years. The last several years your home has been at Cedar Crest Nursing Home. While there, you touched so many lives in a positive way. Always looking out for other residents needs before your own. The way you made the bad situations seem like no big deal. You just dealt with it and excepted and made the most out of it. I admired how you where so content with what appeared to be nothing to most but it was always enough for you. Thank you for loving me and always seeing the good in me!

love you always,
Tracey

“ To my sparky, I waited for you to come back and see me, but I understand you were ready to be with our savior. I am fortunate and grateful enough to have met you and able to spend our time together. You made cedarcrest no longer a place of work for me but a home. I'll miss your spunky, sweet, beautiful self but I know your in a better place. Thor and I love you and he appreciates all the jelly beans you gave him. To a beautiful soul. Fly high and Rest In Peace my sparky.
