“ We first met Brother Al & Darla in 2004 at FBCBA. As we sat on the same row I immediately recognized his amazing voice. I invited him to sing in "Joy Singers" but he said he was working. Later, when re retired he sang in the "Joy Singers."

Sometimes we could go out and eat but the most precious memories were the times we spent visiting on our front yards. Ron loved to visit with him and Darla is my buddy, I love talking to her.

Rest in peace, our dear Friend until we see you someday. I know you are echoing beautiful vibroto in your "Heavenly mansion".

Our hearts go out to Darla and family

Lovingly,
Brenda & Ron Childress
