“ We shared many sunrises and many sunsets, many campfires and many starry nights, many adventures and many hunts, many good times and many, many laughs. Now some tears. Andy was a good husband, father, companion and a good man. We'll miss him always. We'll never forget him. Bill, Sr & Bill, Jr.

This photo represents the sweet, kind, thoughtful and true pic of Brother Andy. He did love life. When he and his family would come sand bass fishing on our place, Andy always seemed the most at peace when he was out in God's creation. He will be missed, But because he knew Jesus, we know we will see him soon! Thank you for sharing Monson family!!!
