

Andy Isaacs

July 10, 1980 - November 3, 2025

Andy's parents, Jerry Isaacs and Brenda (Dorris) Isaacs, welcomed him into their lives on July 10, 1980. He brought them joy from day one. His childhood was full of activity; soccer, football, boy scouts, school, church and the usual antics of boys. He became a big brother to Joel at 21 months of age. They share a special bond that only brothers know.

Andy fathered a beloved son, Terrik Logsdon; and Terrik and Aliyah gave him 2 beautiful granddaughters, Kiara and Amina. Terrik and Andy shared a love of music and family.

Andy met the great love of his life, Alison Rumfelt, and they married on May 26, 2001. They were inseparable and loved each other deeply. Together they had 2 amazing daughters who they adored. Killian, 23 and Mischa, 17. There was nothing more important to Andy than his family. He served them well, providing for them through his welding career, killing spiders that freaked out the girls, taking them thrifting or just hanging out. He was the protector for his family. He loved well, giving the best hugs, was a great son, husband, grandson, father, brother, and friend. He never met a dog he didn't like and his Shiiba and Harvey, the family pets, will miss him terribly.

His surviving family and friends will always remember him as a good man and the funniest and coolest guy in the room.
