“ Ann Lawson.....our Cupid, we will love and miss you always.

Marcella knew Ann, Bill and boys from the time they joined Arrow Heights Baptist Church on south Main, probably in the late 1950s. We were still in the original, small sanctuary then. I was still a kid, but remember voting for Bill for Deacon. My Mother counted the offering with Bill. Those times were so good, everyone in the church knew everyone, and we were a pretty close group of friends who loved the Lord.

Ann worked at the Board Building at Broken Arrow Public Schools, and Elmer was her boss. Although she had never played Cupid before, she just knew that Elmer and I would be right for each other. She worked on Elmer for three....yes three years before he would take the leap and call me, Marcella. Ann "made" me sign a note that said if/when he called I would go out with him. My Dad told Ann if she could get a good husband for me he would take them out to dinner (and he did). Finally he made the call, in January 1979. I was on good behavior that first date because Ann had told me he had two tickets to see the Globetrotters. :) By May we were talking marriage and we married on October 11, 1979. This October will be 36 years for us, still happily married. So Ann has always been an extremely special person to us. It broke our hearts that she had to leave this world in the manner that was her fate.

Aside from being our Cupid, Ann was just a truly outstanding person, friend, and Christian. Ann was a beautiful lady, an elegant lady. We enjoyed visiting with her always.

Kelly, we both know what it's like to be the last of a family; it hurts deeply. We will be praying for you and all of your family.

Amber, you have been such an outstanding granddaughter; she talked about you a lot and was so grateful to have you in her life, most especially since she became ill. Your loving care for and of Ann goes beyond measure. You should feel very good about that, even as time goes on and you look back on this whole experience.

Shayne, Ann was so tickled to get to hold your new baby. It was wonderful that both you and Amber lived so close by.

Our love and prayers to all.

We'll see you soon, Cupid.
