“ Tony was one of my best friends growing up in the Bronx. He married our friend Lenore. She and my wife Frances were very close. Our daughter, Kristina was born two days before their son Kevin was born. Our wives lent support to each other during their pregnancies. Tony and I last spoke on the telephone about a month before he passed. I was about to check in with him when I saw his obituary. Fran and I are deeply saddened by his passing but grateful to have been his friend. May he rest in peace.

“ Nothing says we're a wholesome family like playing Cards Against Humanity with Tony - first time meeting him and he stuck with it despite the rough situation he had to endure! We're so thankful to have had the opportunity to spend time with Tony and get to know him better. Sending you all our love and support!

“ We always had a great time when we were together,,A best friend is that one person above all else you know better than anyone, that you share everything with and would trust with your life. Goodbyes are not forever. Goodbyes are not the end. They simply mean I'll miss you until we meet again
