

Barbara Allred

March 25, 1943 - May 4, 2026

Barbara Joella Payne Allred was born March 28, 1943, in Wade, Oklahoma, and passed away May 4, 2026, in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. After graduating from Tulsa's Union High School in 1961, she married the love of her life, Donald Allred, in 1965. Early in their marriage, Barbara and Don traveled throughout Europe while Don was stationed in Germany during his military service. Upon returning to Oklahoma from their travels, they made their home in Broken Arrow bringing along a cuckoo clock that chimed every hour on the hour. Barbara worked as a receptionist and kept an immaculate home. She enjoyed cooking and gathering family for special occasions, and she often opened her home to nieces and nephews for sleepovers. There was always a full jar of M&Ms in the kitchen, Hello Dollies and Divinity at Christmas.

In later years, Barbara and Don bought a lake house on Fort Gibson, where they spent many weekends fishing and hosting family. Barbara believed in community and made friends with her neighbors, service workers, and those she employed. She was a Christian, baptized at the Freewill Baptist Church in Tulsa, and later she attended the Nazarene Church in Broken Arrow as she was able. Her faith in God saw her through difficult times and times of blessing.

She is survived by her sister, Wilma Lewis of Tulsa, Oklahoma; her sister-in-law, Opal Nichols of Edmond, Oklahoma; and her brother-in-law, Gary Allred of Wagoner, Oklahoma, as well as many loving nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Donald Allred; her parents, Charles and Caddie Payne; and her sister, Charlene Johnson.
