

Barbara Lou Hollis

July 21, 1930 - February 22, 2016

Barbara Lou Hollis departed her earthly life and was received into the welcoming arms of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Monday, February 22, 2016. She was 85 years old. A funeral service for Barbara will be held at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, February 27, 2016 at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Broken Arrow, OK. Visitation will begin at 9:00 a.m. and continue until shortly before the service.

Barbara was born in Wichita, Kansas on July 21, 1930 to Victor Esco and Kathleen Nadine (Bell) Weaver. She graduated from Odessa High School in 1946 and later acquired college coursework in accounting, purchasing, and shorthand. For most of her adult life she was employed in bookkeeping and secretarial positions, including a number of years at the Internal Revenue Service.

Barbara's first marriage, to Billy D. Pogue, was blessed with six children. Her second marriage, to Roy Coleman Hollis, resulted in her seventh child as well as four stepchildren. Barbara looked at her 11 children, 25 grandchildren, over 40 great-grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter as her most important legacy and loved them all deeply.

In her free time, Barbara enjoyed reading, crocheting, sewing, cooking, canning, working crossword puzzles, and bowling. Until her health got in the way, she was extremely active in her church, completing training as a Lay Minister and teaching classes for children preparing for communion. As a member of Al-Anon, she also sponsored an Al-A-Teen group for several
