“ Mrs. Jackson was like a mother to me. I spent many afternoons at the Jackson family house when I was growing up in Tulsa in the 80's, just sitting in the kitchen talking with her and soaking in her wisdom and guidance. I was always different, and to many people that meant “weird”, but I can clearly remember Mrs. Jackson saying to me, with admiration in her voice, “Jojo, you are just you're own person.” I wish I could tell her how much all her love and support meant to me, but I have a feeling she knows. I am blessed to have known her.

“ All our Love and deep prayers to my brother, Ray, nephew Kendall, niece Sheri, nephew Tony, and all family. Julie and I can still hear Barbara's laugh and see her smile. We remember attending a Tulsa Drillers ballgame with Barbara and Ray years ago. When standing for the National Anthem, we heard an angelic and bold voice from just behind! It was Barbara! I would have loved to hear her sing a gospel song. Our prayers are with you all, Lots of love, Julie & Jimmy
