“ Barbara, Alfred, Betty Ann and Steve lived about a house way from my family. Betty Ann was my sister's friend and Steve was my brother's friend, and i was friends with both of them. Barbara and Alfred were my Mom and Dad's good friends, and we all had so much fun when we all got together to cook out and eat together. Barbara was very kind and welcoming to me every time i came over. I know all of her family will miss her dearly, and am sure that her reunion with her beloved Alfred was awesome.

“ Aunt Barbara was an amazing woman. Grew up through trying times, and overcame many obstacles. Her children a living example of children given love and support for growth. She was a light in my darkness many times, and so happy she was my Aunt. She was an ever-present example of God's love to me throughout my life. I will miss her deeply.
