

Barbara Moore

October 11, 1933 - April 16, 2021

Barbara Frances (Gilmore) Moore was born in Wagoner, Oklahoma on October 11th, 1933 to William F. Gilmore, Sr., and Thelma Moselle (Scott) Gilmore. She passed away to her heavenly home on April 16th, 2021.

Barbara was the oldest of four children who helped with the care of her younger siblings. Her only brother, William F. Gilmore, Jr., tragically passed away while serving his country in Vietnam. She is survived by her sisters Mary Ellen Overton and Madeline Gilmore.

Barbara married Clarence Cooper after high school and the couple was blessed with four sons: David, Kenny, Mike, and Jeff. She was a wonderful mother who taught her sons about God and was well-known for being an excellent cook. Barbara was always attending her sons' school activities and ballgames and was also involved in the Parent Teacher Association and served as a Sunday School teacher. Barbara continued this tradition with her grandchildren as she regularly attended their school activities and ballgames.

Barbara was a faithful employee of Springer Clinic, where she held an office position for many years. She enjoyed her job and the people she worked with.

In 1976, Barbara married Harold Lloyd Moore, the love of her life. They made their home in Broken Arrow and enjoyed 45 years of marriage until his recent passing in February of 2021. Through this union, she was also blessed to have Karen as her step-daughter. Barbara and Harold loved making their house into a home where they regularly hosted family gatherings complete with special meals and a level of hospitality only Barbara could provide. They enjoyed gardening and planting flowers and always had a beautiful yard. Their home never ceased to be a welcoming place for family and friends.

Barbara and Harold were members of the Northside Christian Church in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Barbara is survived by sons David Cooper and wife Lorrie, Kenneth Cooper and wife Barbara, Michael Cooper and wife Jill, and Jeffrey Cooper; step-daughter Karen Hutson and husband Bruce; grandchildren Keith, Ryan and wife Tiffani, Kelly and wife Aimee, Mike and wife Kristyn, Angie, Jeffrey, Scott, Brent Hutson, and Bryan Hutson; eleven great-grandchildren; sisters Mary Ellen Overton and Madeline Gilmore; niece Dr. Malinda Overton Webb; nephew Myron Overton, and special family friend Dr. Nilda Reyes.

Barbara was preceded in death by her husband, parents, brother, daughter-in-law, Susan Jane Cooper, and grandson, Dustin Cooper.

“ When Grandma had family over for Thanksgiving it was quite the sight to behold. As I can remember there were at least 3 rooms filled with food. The rest of the space in the house was filled with people....and tables...in EVERY room. That included living room, sun room, and even the garage and bedrooms. It might have been half the population of Tulsa. Lots of food, fun & laughter. Thats a life well lived. Love ya and miss ya Grandma!

“ *Grandma Barbara,
I will miss those cooking skills you developed from raising 4 boys, always remembering one 5 lbs. bag of potatoes equals one meal. If the US. Government had only put the two of us in charge for a couple of years, we would have fixed everything. The last year was a challenge for you and Grandpa, so glad you are pain free and together again. You will be missed greatly.

“ *Remembering.....
- the way you and dad worked together as one mindset as you conducted purchases, planned the gardening, visited family, and even those picky meal decisions!
- the times you created “ over the top” holiday meals, visited us in Missouri with your basket of baked goods, and your love of gardening and reading.
- the two “Just Because” gifts over those early years have never been forgotten.*

Watching “Blue Bloods” will never be the same without you!

*Love you much,

“ Barbara & Harold were indeed two special church friends whom we so enjoyed visiting with at Northside Christian Church. My husband died in 2018 and I so remember her bringing delicious food for the funeral day meal. Her happy, joyful laughter always brought joy to me. Only a few weeks before her death we had such a cheerful talk. Likewise with Harold as I always told me that we were related as my maiden name was Moore. My husband and I always enjoyed our church time together. Jennie Mann
