She was born on August 1, 1960 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to Howard and Alice Ann (Montgomery) Noah. Becky graduated from Broken Arrow High School in 1978, where she excelled academically and was an active member of the marching band. She later continued her education at Northeastern State University, earning an additional degree in accounting.

Becky had a strong and enduring faith, believing that the way to the Father is through the Son. Her faith guided her daily life and shaped the love and kindness she shared with family, friends, and all that knew her. She treasured her close-knit circle of friends. She also had a deep love for travel. Among her favorite destinations were Hawaii, France, and England. Becky touched the lives of many with her warmth, generosity, and devotion, and she will be deeply missed.

She is survived by her sister Louann Hill and her husband Ken of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, her nephews Drew Hill and Ryan Hill and his wife Kaci and Grandnieces/nephews, Lila, Riley, and Theodore, all of Broken Arrow.

Becky was preceded in death by her parents, Howard and Alice Ann Noah.

“ My sweet Becky. What a valiant warrior you have been. I am so thankful that your suffering has ended but life on earth without you will be so difficult for so many. They say a heart that is broken is a heart that was loved and oh how you loved. I will miss you every day for the remainder of my life..nobody could ever fill your shoes. Rest with Jesus my beloved friend.
