Ben was born in Melrose, Iowa on October 11, 1924 to Martin and Mary Jeanette (Kosman) Scieszinski. He graduated from Melrose High School in 1942 before continuing his education by studying architecture for two years. Ben also trained as a Machinist Mate at Kansas University in Lawrence, Kansas. On July 6, 1943 Ben enlisted in the United States Navy to honorably serve his country. He served aboard NTS, Farragut, Idaho, Repair Unit, Navy 134, Repair Unit, Navy, 3205 and Ship Repair Unit, Navy 3002. Ben was awarded several medals including the Victory Medal, Asiatic Pacific Area Campaign Medal, Philippine Liberation Medal, American Area Campaign Medal before his honorable discharge on April 18, 1946.

On May 3, 1947 Ben married Juanita Faye Wright in a Chicago wedding ceremony. Their union was blessed with six children. Ben was most recently an insurance agent with Prudential but also worked as a butcher, a fireman on the Santa Fe Railroad, a driver for Standard Oil Company and at A&P Grocery store. In his free time, Ben enjoyed fishing and just being outdoors in nature. He was proud of his military service and was a member of the Veteran of Foreign Wars.
