“ I remember Beryl, she was in our club in high school and was a very friendly person. The club was called Las Cresas, we enjoyed many activities within the club. I remember one evening a bunch of us took a joy ride about 6 or 7 of us, all crowded into the NASH car that she had at that time. We were so crowded into that car ,we all were giggling and laughing the whole way. I never knew anyone else with that name, Beryl and so I have always remembered her. My name is Carole Choate Caito My condolences to the family.

“ Beryl will be missed at St Bendicts in Broken Arrow and in all the hearts of all the Souls that heard her music. I think I met Beryl about the first day she was hired by Father Paul. I sang with the men's group in her choir, she created the music for Agnes Thoma's funeral, my wife.

I have to a lot of Churches and have nevr heard such excellent music and sound from HerChoir. My quess is that God needed some help in Hid Choir!

Condolences to Beryl's family, friends, and The Church of St Benedict's.

“ I've known Beryl since joining St. Benedicts. I sang with the men's club several times and I was always amazed how well Beryl could bring the additional "no tune" gang onboard and have a sweet sounding choir. RIP Beryl, until we meet in the heavenly choir.
