Betty Ann.....every time I hear or read her name, I always think of that little girl who sat a few rows in front of my family at Arrow Heights Baptist Church in the 1950s. When we stood to sing, she would turn around to see who all was behind them. Then her Mom would notice her and nudge her to turn back to the front. That is a sweet memory; she still looked much the same as when she was a little young girl.

Some time, after her dad passed, her dear Mother Barbara, and I became very close friends. So I gained three friends, counting Betty Ann and Steve. Their friendship has meant so very much to me. Those years have certainly passed fast. "As a vapor, our lives are."

Betty Ann was a good person; she was a dear friend I will never forget. She always made me laugh; she was a fun friend to be around. Now, she is at Home with our Lord. She is free from all pain and worry.

Steve and Sharon, I know that you both meant the world to Betty Ann, and vise-versa. I'm sure that your hearts are hurting, and you will greatly miss her. You have my prayers for comfort, strength and peace.

My family lived on North 1st St, so my backyard was a stone's throw diagonally to Betty's back yard. We were blessed to have the Meier family live so close to us. My parents became close friends with Alfred and Barbara and David, Brenda and I became friends with Betty and Steve. I knew Betty since 1st grade. She was always good-natured.

We walked to each other's houses often. I always thought she had a cute house. I went to VBS with Betty one summer and we made the coolest crafts. The VBS leaders baked some marbles, making them crack and the kids made "grapes" with them. My favorite memory with Betty was whenever dressed me up in her mother's dress, padded me with pillows, then we sat on the car in her driveway, waving to all the people on Main Street. Betty called it the lady-lady show. From our house, we could often hear Steve playing his drums! We were all heartbroken when Alfred passed away so early in life. He was my father's best friend. Barbara did a great job of continuing to raise Betty and Steve. During college, Betty knew I was looking for a job and I worked with her a couple months one summer. Betty was smart. She could whip out excellent letters in no time. After college, I got married, had 4 children and moved 10 times, following my husband's oil and gas jobs. I didn't get to see Betty as often during those years. I wish I would have the chance again. I will miss you, my good and faithful friend. I have many fond memories. But I know you are no longer ill and are now reunited with your beautiful parents.

“ Betty was the first friend I made when my family moved to Broken Arrow. Her sweetness and kindness was always evident. We did get into some mischief in high school but always had a good laugh about it. I'll miss you Betty Ann.

Betty was one of the kindest, funniest people I ever had the pleasure of knowing. She always had a twinkle like something was up and only she was in on it. Loved working with her, loved that she considered me her friend. I will truly miss her. She was a true gem and I am honored to have been a small part of her life.

My dearest friend Betty, as I think about all the years of experience we shared, it is difficult to imagine the future without you. Whether we talked daily or some time was spent between visits, our conversations picked up where we left off without missing a beat. We shared our interests, our loves, and our losses. We traveled, we tried new things, and we formed habits together, some good and some questionable. 😊 In later life, our valued treasures have been sharing our grandchildren and taking them on outings together. Our last excursion was to Ross to watch Ella and Oliver with their shopping cart picking out items to purchase and then going out to eat. Betty loved that. Ella was Betty's world, and she loved her with all her heart. She also loved the time she spent with her brother Steve and his wife Sharon. Betty loved life and spending time with her family and friends, and I will miss her everyday for the rest of mine. Deann Wilson
