“ I was blessed to have had Bill around our church growing up where he served as a deacon and spiritual leader for many. Later on, I was blessed to have shared time with him going to various races and football games.

One of my favorite memories, and one that I will never forget, is one night when my dad, Bill, David Wakefield, and I were on our way to eat at Ron's Hamburgers en route to the Chili Bowl races in Tulsa. David and Bill were always poking fun at each other and giving each other a hard time. While we were in the car, Bill's mom called. She had asked what he was doing and Bill told her "I'm on my way to eat a bite and then go to the races with my friend, his son, and this other guy." We laughed the rest of the night.

I'm glad I got to know Bill and call him my friend. -- Jerrad Hall

“ What a small earthly world in which we live and yet so vast, the number of people a life touches. Bill reminds me of the movie "It's a Wonderful Life". Although I only knew Bill briefly, I remember most of all his sensitive and gentle spirit, so open to prayer. As I read over the lives he touched, I recognized one, Vicki Whitby, who she says Bill comforted her when her husband was dying. She comforted me after the passing of my husband. The circle continues. I am so sorry for the pain that Glenda and all of their family will experience in learning to walk this journey without Bill but I am happy to know that he has an eternal home in heaven. I am praying for you to be kind to yourselves and look to THE ONE who gives peace like no other, our Jesus!

“ I was blessed to meet Uncle Bill when I joined the Heflin Family over 45 years ago. He was my mother-in-law Nina's brother. The Crutchfield family was a fun loving God filled home. Uncle Bill and Aunt Virginia and their precious daughters, Carri and Vicki were a tight knit family. They were so involved in their church and raised their daughters to love God and others. Bill and Virginia raised a loving, wonderful family and I was glad to be a part of this also. Uncle Bill loved our boys and enjoyed some of our grandchildren also. It is always hard living far from family but we sure enjoyed our visits to Oklahoma to visit.
Uncle Bill will be greatly missed.

“ My favorite memories of Uncle Bill were when I, his nephew Russell Heflin, visited him with my mother, his sister, Nine Heflin, her husband, George Heflin, my sister, Cheryl Heflin, and my brother, Wesley Heflin over the summer and/or Christmas holidays. Over time, he got to meet his grandnephews Ryan Heflin (and wife Heather), Adam Heflin (and wife Lindsey), Travis Heflin and Evan Heflin, his grandniece Natasha Heflin, his great-grandniece Sadie Heflin, and great-grandnephew Jack Heflin. Unfortunately, due to his health (and time), he never got a chance to meet his great-grandnephew Bentley Heflin, nor his great-grandnieces Emma Heflin and Molly Heflin. He will be missed by the Heflin family.

“ I don't ever remember a world without Bill Crutchfield. I've literally known him my entire life. My heart is broken for all of us who will never see him again on this side of heaven, but I'm rejoicing for him that he is healed. He's Living by sight now! One day when I was sitting on the floor outside my dying husband's hospital room I looked up and saw Bill standing over me. I fell into his arms & we stood in the hall with our arms around each other crying. He was such a comfort to me. He was a wonderful prayer warrior & a godly man. I will miss him.
