

Bland Pittman

September 4, 1938 - January 17, 2024

Bland Park Pittman was born in Idabel, Oklahoma on Sunday, September 4, 1938 to Harry Bland and Earnestine (Park) Pittman. He passed in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Wednesday, January 17, 2024 at the age of 85.

Bland was a high school graduate of Idabel? He was interested in building things from an early age. He continued his education at LSU earning his Bachelor's degree. Bland met the lovey Sandra Lee Sample and they were married in Atoka, Oklahoma on November 27, 1959. They raised two sons. Bland loved working alongside both his sons on different projects. He was an Architect by trade. A 'land planner' and 'golf course designer'. He designed the Battlecreek Golf course. He designed this with his team at Pittman, Poe and Associates.

No one enjoyed the outdoors more than Bland. Other than golf, he braved all types of weather for hunting and fishing. He was a big game hunter, even traveling to hunt African wildlife. Another one of his hobbies was watching OU softball and football!

Bland is survived by,

Wife, Sandra Pittman of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Sons, Brooks Pittman and Amanda of Owasso, Oklahoma

Hunter Pittman and Suzie of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Grandchildren, Zach Pittman, Jake Pittman, Maddy Pittman, Aiden Moody,

Gavin Moody, Samuel Pittman, Piper Pittman
Siblings, Patti Hillhouse, Phill Pittman

Preceded in death by parents, Harry and Earnestine Pittman.

Tribute Wall

JF

“ My brother Jerry Fox graduated from Hugo High School in the same class as Bland. They remained in contact for the rest of Jerry's life {2022}, with Jerry often forward their exchanges on to me. I knew Bland as a friend of Jerry's in High School and learned to appreciate his intelligence through exchanges. Joe Fox

Joe Fox - January 31, 2024 at 12:46 PM

KM

“ I'll always treasure Bland's memory and the friendship we had. He was an extraordinary person who will be miss by everyone who knew him and the countless lives he touched. His life's work and legacy will live on forever!

Ken Morgan and Jennie Mangun - January 27, 2024 at 04:50 PM

JC

“ Bland was a remarkable man with numerous talents, interests, and worldwide accomplishments. We will always remember and value his friendship and the great times we spent with him personally and professionally.

Jake and Nancy Cantrell - January 27, 2024 at 01:26 PM

DB

“ You had only to attend a meeting being held in the Conference Room at Bland's office to be awarded a stunning view of his career, a glance at the World Map that adorns the wall will show you the scope of his projects on the world stage. It is with deep and humbling feelings we say goodbye to Bland who was always ready to lift up the ones around him and always ready to help.

Darlene Batson - January 26, 2024 at 01:09 PM

JH

“ I worked with Bland to bring about his vision for Battle Creek. He was the light of the project, and a wonderful man to work with. Much respect...

Jeff Hawkins - January 21, 2024 at 02:42 PM

JR

“ He was truly a great friend and I learned so much from him. He was very giving and compassionate, and absolutely brilliant at what he did!

John Robinson - January 21, 2024 at 12:26 PM

JH

“ Joni And Fred Hummel lit a candle in memory of Bland Pittman

Joni and Fred Hummel - January 18, 2024 at 04:13 PM

LB

“ Death takes our body. The Lord our God takes our soul. Our minds will hold on to the memories forever. Our heart keeps love and our faith gives us strength till we will see each other again.

Lynn Blevins - January 17, 2024 at 08:14 PM

“ It is our honor and privilege to serve the Pittman family and to provide this permanent tribute website in memory of Bland. ”

Hayhurst Funeral Home - January 17, 2024 at 09:55 AM