

Bob Lawson

June 26, 1942 - July 27, 2022

Robert Gayle Lawson was born on June 26, 1942, to Shelby Dayton Lawson and Marjorie Ellen (Hickman) Lawson in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

After graduating high school, Robert attended Phillips University, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree. He also served our country honorably by joining the Airforce.

Robert met the love of his life, Jan LaVal in college. They married in Joplin, Missouri in 1966. They had two sons, Rob Lawson and Brad Lawson, both of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Robert worked as a magazine editor and very much enjoyed reading in his spare time. He owned an online book selling business that he ran with his brother, Shelby. He enjoyed going to estate sales and traveling around the country with his wife Jan. They especially enjoyed going to historical sights and Civil War destinations. Robert was known for his dry sense of humor and love for "A Christmas Story". He was a wonderful husband, father, brother and grandfather.

He will be truly missed by those who knew and loved him.

Robert is survived by:

Wife, Jan Lawson of the home

Sons, Rob Lawson and Brad Lawson of Broken Arrow

Grandchild, Katherine May

Great Grandchildren, Szamara, Josephine and Lincoln

Brother, Shelby Lawson of Bartlesville

“ I always appreciated how direct Bob was. And when he talked to a person he was very intentional about eye contact. For me, he was Emmaus leadership Emeritas. God used he and Jan sooo well in that ministry and both were always encouraging to me in my leadership journey. His life made a big difference to A lot of pilgrims. As Karen Frederick pointed out, his celebration of life reception looked like an Emmaus send off!

“ Jan and family, sending prayers and may sweet memories be yours always. Annette and Linda Brown called me when they knew Bob was ill and passing. This brings our shared church memories to heart when our kids were in youth group together. Jan, please, plan lunch with us Linda and Susie Mays soon. Kandie Fairchild
