“ Bobby, you will be sorely missed by your friends and Classmates (Claremore Class of 66). We were so fortunate to have seen you once again at our 50th reunion, Class picnic and later a dinner in Tulsa.

We pray that our Lord who loves your family so dearly will comfort their hearts in the coming days.

“ Every time I saw my Uncle Bobby, he always had that beautiful smile on his face. Something he always did for me that I'm sure he didn't know how much I needed - he always talked to me about my brothers Ronnie, Ricky and Kelly. Through him, I got to know my brother Ronnie, whom I never met because he died before I was born. I loved that and I will always cherish my Uncle for doing that for me. I take comfort in knowing that he is with my dad and all my brothers now and that I'll see him and them again someday. I love you Uncle Bobby!

I will always love you, my uncle Bobby. Even when you were fighting your own battle, you were fighting for my husband "Tim". Your prayers, phone calls of encouragement were always right on time. I so appreciated you being with me, when Tim passed. So many people were there in the hospital, but I knew you were standing in faith, not giving up, believing for a miracle. I love you for that. My dad, your brother "Willis" passed one week after you. I believe that he's there with you and Tim too, along with many loved ones who've gone on before. We'll all be reunited, in just a little while. Love, Joy McCollum Justus

“ To The McCollums & Families,

Please accept my families sincere condolences for the loss of your brother and family member. I loved Bobby for so many reasons. He was such help to me during the loss of my cousin Rex Lee Brown. He held my arm while the 21 gun salute was performed, but the first shots rang out and Bobby almost pulled me to the ground.

You will be sorely missed. God has a place for you.

Much Love
