

Bonnie L. Harding

January 2, 1937 - October 14, 2017

Services honoring the life of Bonnie L. Harding will be 2:00 p.m., Monday, October 23, 2017 at Memorial Park Cemetery Chapel. Bonnie will be laid to rest at Memorial Park Cemetery.

Bonnie was born in Locust Grove, Oklahoma on Saturday, January 2, 1937 to Leonard "Dick" and Iva (Breedlove) Cooper. Bonnie passed away in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Saturday, October 14, 2017 at the age of 80.

Bonnie grew up on a large farm with four brothers and three sisters. She had a great childhood and loved to talk about it. Bonnie attended school and graduated from Locust Grove High School before she went on to attend Draughton's Business School. She worked as a secretary for different companies including Douglas Aircraft and Sinclair Oil & Gas. Bonnie met her late husband while she worked in the personnel department at American Airlines.

Bonnie married Ron Adams and their union was blessed with two children, Rhonda and Ronnie. Bonnie and Ron were married for 26 years before their separation. Bonnie found love again and on July 4, 1986 she married Kenneth Harding. Bonnie was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother. She adored her family and cherished every opportunity to be with them.

Bonnie was a talented golfer and loved to be out on the golf course. During her rounds on the golf course, Bonnie made 8 holes-in-one! Bonnie loved to dance and listen to country music. She enjoyed traveling and was able to visit exotic places such as Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, Scotland and Ireland. Bonnie also loved spending time with her friends and family, cooking and walking.
