

Bradley James Heath

October 8, 1958 - October 25, 2017

Bradley James “Brad” Heath was born on Wednesday, October 8, 1958 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to Jim and Carol (Freeman) Heath. Brad passed away on Wednesday, October 25, 2017 at the age of 59.

Brad graduated from high school and went on to earn his Master’s degree in Education. Brad worked in education as a professor.

Brad married Catherine Lynn Starks and their union was blessed with a son and a daughter. Brad was a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. He adored his family and loved spending time with them, especially his grandchildren who lovingly referred to him as “Papa Doggie.”

Brad was a very intelligent person and had many interests; one of which was the space race and the landing on the moon. He was also a trekkie, always a big fan of Star Trek. Brad was into computers and computer science. He often enjoyed listening to 70’s and 80’s music. Brad was known for his great sense of humor, his heart of gold and his constant defense for the underdog in any situation. Brad will be missed by all whose lives he touched.

“ As a fellow class of '76er, I knew Brad to be a very kind and compassionate person. My heart goes out to his family and friends as they try to find peace in this sad time. Jim, my father, Dale Myers, asked me to express his sympathy to you on the loss of your son. He was very sad to know of your great loss. He remembers you, and remembers your son Brad, both very fondly.

“ My sincere condolences for your loss at this time. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon " swallow up death forever " and " wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8)
With my deepest sympathy
