

Brandon Robinson

April 16, 1977 - June 30, 2021

Brandon Richard Robinson was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma to parents, Richard Truman and Charlene Gay (Strate) Robinson on Saturday, April 16, 1977. He passed in Dallas, Texas on Wednesday, June 30, 2021 at the young age of 44. Services will be under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home.

Brandon was a Tulsa graduate from Memorial high School – Class of 1995. He furthered his education at Oklahoma State University where he obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics and International Business in 2000. Brandon belonged to the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity and maintained a close relationship with his Brother Beta's. Brandon was a consummate professional, most recently with USAA/Charles Schwab and proudly had earned his CFP and CRPC designations.

Brandon loved people, soccer, and dogs, particularly Labrador Retrievers. He shared many long distant conversations and laughs with his brother and was especially fond of his nephew and niece. He had a fondness for historical baseball stadiums, sharing visits to many with his Dad. His Mom and Gili were the women he loved dearly, although he would admit to not saying it enough. Brandon had a keen sense of humor and a master of analogies. His quiet leadership and friendship touched many lives.

Brandon is survived by his parents, Rick and Charlene Robinson, his brother,

Brenton, his girlfriend and soul mate, Gili Leibovich, nephew Brenton, niece Brooklyn, and his black lab, Beckham, his best friend since kindergarten, Daniel Leung, as well as countless friends.

“ My husband and I were USAA transfers to Schwab with Brandon as our guide through all the paperwork and procedures involved. He was always so patient, helpful and personable in our dealings with him. We are saddened to lose him and can only imagine your grief. Just know that we greatly appreciate his service for many years. We will miss him, his financial knowledge, competence and his gift of making us feel our concerns were his priority.

“ I worked with Brandon for several years. Whenever I picture him, I see a smile and bright friendly eyes. We would stop by each other's desks a few times a week with questions or just to visit - and I respected him for many reasons: intelligence, positive attitude, sincere and caring work ethic, and certainly his humor.

Brandon always wore a smile and generously handed out compliments and thanks. He made a room brighter when he walked in, and I was always glad to see him. His unexpected passing was sad and sudden, and I will miss him.

“ We were honored to have Brandon in our lives as clients starting from his days at USAA. Brandon was a trusted advisor and friend and we too will miss him dearly. He always took the extra time to help us understand our portfolio without making us feel like he was the smartest person in the room, though he surely was. I'd laugh to myself when Jan wanted to get Brandon on the line, because I knew “there goes two hours he'll never get back”, yet he always made us feel like we were the only thing on his schedule that day. To all his friends and family, thank you so much for sharing Brandon with us and know our prayers are with you...

“ I am so shocked and sad about Brandon's passing. Brandon became my financial advisor at USAA soon after my husband's death. I was so frazzled and couldn't keep anything financial in my head and he was so patient. I was so relieved when he said he could remain my advisor at Schwab. Brandon had a different approach than other financial advisors I've known: he got to know me and shared stories about himself with me. We found out that we both were alums of Oklahoma State (although I was in Tulsa, not Stillwater) and that sparked a lot of conversations. Of course we talked about family. It was clear that he admired and loved his parents. And he spoke of his girlfriend, Gili, and how they were getting through all the craziness of isolation. He talked about that last visit to Mexico and how much fun it was. We talked about our dogs as well. Brandon became a trusted friend to me and I am heartbroken for his family and his professional family. May God bless you all.

I had the pleasure of meeting Brandon 6 years ago when he joined USAA and moved to Dallas. I was his initial manager at that time and although he had other managers during the 6 years, he has been on my team again for the last 2 years. Brandon is a great person and employee, and will be deeply missed. I have received numerous emails and phone calls from his clients letting me know they really enjoyed working with Brandon and considered him "one of their family". He took a very personal and professional interest in his clients and always did his best to exceed their expectations. Brandon - May you rest in peace and know that your Schwab peers miss you deeply and will take great care of your clients and hope to extend your legacy of providing exceptional experiences for your clients - Michael Gladwin

“ I join in sorrow at the loss of Brandon. Brandon was routinely assigned as my financial advisor two years back, and a bond of trust and friendship emerged rapidly. Our conversations more often revolved around life rather than finances. When we spoke two weeks ago, he confided the discovery of his heart condition, and we shared optimism that the timely placement of a stent afforded him a bright future. He jokingly remarked, after his girlfriend suggested a pill organizer to track his medications, "I'm in my 40s, not my 80s!" Yet now, sadly, he is gone. To his family and loved ones, my deepest sympathies. How fortunate I was that such a wonderful guy crossed my path.

“ Met Brandon in Tulsa summer before his freshman year at Oklahoma State. Him and I hit it off immediately and were instant friends despite the two year age difference. His personality is what I will miss most. He lit up the room and was so charismatic. He was always a smart ass much like myself and we would always be messing with other guys in the fraternity. Messing with other guys in the fraternity and having fun will always be great memories. Will miss you brother and know you are going to be looking down on all of us and helping us out. From all of us In my pledge class at Beta- we loved you and will you. Darin Zanovich
