“ *Years ago, Brent and I were driving from Ottawa to a meeting in St Catherines. On 401 in Toronto we got into a heavy conversation about biosphere reserves and didn't notice when we left Toronto. The next thing we saw was a sign directing us to London. Whoops! So we turned around and found the QEW to go south. Then we got talking about girls, again driving on autopilot so to speak. The next thing we knew we were in New York State having accidentally taken a secondary road that bypassed the checkpoint. We turned around again and explained to the Canadian Customs agent that we were driving from Ottawa to St Catherines, had gotten lost and been in the USA for about four minutes. She just laughed and said you boys go ahead. We were late for the meeting. But it was one of the most fun and craziest drives I have ever had. I just heard about Brent 15 minutes ago. He was a great guy. I'm really sad.

“ Brent, we spent some good quality time the last six months before your passing. Helping me get back to my kids was your greatest concern. I will not forget what we spoke about or the advice and friendship we shared since 2002. I am heartbroken over your passing....and no words can express the loss im feeling or your family and friends.....All I know is that you loved God and rock music and i know you wanted a companion to live out your days with. I am honored that i was someone you cherished enough to share your personal life with til the end. You will be missed and I love you buddy. See you on the other side my dear friend.

“ I'll never forget the time we lived in Coweta and we were swimming in the cow pond across the road. Dad came down the road and waved with a honk so we thought everything was good to go. Mom drove to end of driveway and laid on the horn and we both knew we were in trouble. We got to the car and she was mad as hell and that long walk up the gravel road was the longest walk ever. Needless to say the wooden paddle was waiting on us but the hour we spent in that dirty muddy cow pond was priceless. Rest In Peace brother.

“ Growing up No matter what we were doing you always made it fun. One of my favorite memories is when we were at Woodland Hills Mall and you Layed down on floor and told us you were making a snow angel, it was so funny! You gave my oldest daughter her middle name. You will be missed always!!!
