

Buck Ewton

April 18, 1934 - May 11, 2023

Buck Ewton was born in Dardanelle, Arkansas on Wednesday, April 18, 1934 to Andrew Jackson and Emma Jane (Heffley) Ewton. He left this earth for the green pastures of Heaven on Thursday, May 11 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma at the age of 89.

Buck was a Broken Arrow Tiger. He played on the first Broken Arrow baseball team. He graduated in 1955. He met the lovely Jean Easley, they fell in love and married in Broken Arrow on January 29, 1972. Buck was a devout Christian and trained his family in the ways of The Lord. He loved going to church and worshiping Jesus. Buck and 17 of his family members were baptized together out East of Broken Arrow in the coal pits. He loved spending time with his niece Hailey. She considered him her grandpa and he called her "my girl". They often played pranks on each other.

Buck was very meticulous which ranked him as a top-notch machinist. He was a treasured employee and lead mechanic for McDonnell Douglas. Buck was a talented musician. He played fiddle and guitar. He would travel around and play at nursing homes and different churches. He thoroughly enjoyed the outdoors. Buck was a successful gardener and fisherman.

“ I can remember my uncle Buck as a talented musician that entertained my son with his guitar. He also had a neighbors dog that would come up to his house and he would pet and play with the dog and got my son to play and pet the dog. My uncle Buck was so good to everyone. He will be missed.
