“ Carol was an awesome lady and the mother of my best friend, Lois Casman. I remember one day she knew I liked her red cape, so she just gave it to me. She was a generous, sweet hearted lady and she will be sorely missed. Pam "PJ" Burnough

Carol and I became close friends in the late 1960's when we started our first jobs in New York City. Shared good and sad memories but we had many good times when she lived in Brooklyn, NY, my hometown. Miss you my friend. Linda Schulkin
