“ Deepest condolences to the Connor family at this sad time. Thank you for sharing the Celebration of Carol's Life video link. Although I couldn't be there in person, it meant a lot to be able to join the celebration. Carol was one of those really special people, and certainly the sweetest and kindest. When I began as an ESL instructor at ULI in the late '90's, Carol became my mentor. Being mentored by Carol was like being adopted by her, she passed on everything she loved about the profession with patience and humor and had a profound influence on me and my work. I realize that our paths crossing was indeed a blessing in my life for which I am so very grateful. I will always remember you fondly, Carol. Rest well in the Eternal Embrace.

“ Carol was my encourager, my prayer partner, and so much more. There are no words to express my sense of loss, but I know she is rejoicing in Heaven at the feet of Jesus. She is not longer suffering, and is made whole. Thank you, Carol, for always being there for me. I love you, and will miss you so much!
