“Carolyn taught a ladies Sunday School class that I had the blessed privilege of being a part of. She was so faithful to study and teach whether it was just me in the class or if we had a room full. I played the keyboard along side of her as she played the piano at our church, and she always played so beautifully. There are certain hymns that will always remind me of her. She was a faithful servant of the Lord, and I am so blessed to have known her.

“ One of the sweetest and most Godly woman that I have ever known. I loved her Bible studies and soft sweet spirit. She ministered to our church in so many ways. We have missed her but look forward to seeing her in Heaven one day. Prayers for Bro. Tom and her family. What a legacy of love and Christ like servanthood!
