

Cecil Weber

February 29, 1936 - October 1, 2025

Cecil Weber, 89, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, passed away on October 1, 2025. He was born on February 29, 1936, in Hebron, North Dakota, the third son of Philipp F. and Friedaricka Weber. Raised in a large and lively family, he developed a strong work ethic and practical skills that guided his life's work. He is survived by six siblings: Sharon (Randy) Weber Burns, Della Weber, Delilah (Todd) Weber Smith, Dinah (Rex) Weber Woods, Ruth Weber Yoder, and Orpah Weber Tudor. He was preceded in death by Fredrick Weber, Clara Weber Simmons, Raymond Weber, Esther (Gordon) Weber Hurtt, Calvin Weber, and Reuben Weber.

Cecil was a lifelong craftsman and residential home builder. Deeply devoted to his faith, he prioritized church and work throughout his life. In the early 1980s he specialized in home remodeling. His family and siblings fondly remember his hands-on approach and commitment to his work.

He was married to Sandra Lee Selma Weber for 53 years until her passing in 2013. Sandra's love and steadiness shaped the family and gave Cecil the foundation for all he accomplished.

Cecil is survived by his children Bryon (Dawn) Weber and Karen Weber Strickland, as well as by Michelle Weber O'Dell and the late Sheryl Moser from a previous marriage. He is also survived by many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He will be remembered for his dedication to his craft, his faith, and the family he helped shape, leaving a legacy of steadfastness, hard work, and quiet devotion that touched all who knew him.
