“ Joy, Kim, Becky, and Mark,

I love you all very much and know how much your dad loved all of you. Growing up with you, under the watchful eye of Aunt Shirley and Uncle Bud, is the backdrop to all of my favorite childhood memories.

I hope as you work through all of the feelings that surround you now, you will focus on the warmth, chaos, laughter, tears, tacos, backyard swings, summer days, pool table, chocolate gravy, food fights, and absolute love at 2020 Sidney Avenue. I can't think of a better family, and I feel lucky to have been a part of it all.

Goodbye, Uncle Bud. Thank you for being such a great father and grandfather. What a legacy of good and loving people you created!

Love, Jackie

“ So many memories of him and my dad fishing all night and it meant I got to spend time with my cousin Joy. Then the next day they would clean the fish and we would all go to Granny Purdom’s and have a cook out. So many fond memories like that. I miss the times and the family. I love you uncle Bud. I wish you could tell me what your first thought was and how amazing it was when you saw Jesus for the first time.
