“ Chase, You will always be the fastest kid on the block. Able to run backwards and still sprint past that slow Payne kid, or Hannah, Abby, and certainly any of those Norman boys. It never seem to matter if it was ten degrees, or one-hundred on Quanah Street, you were always down for a game of front-yard football, baseball, or running around and just being a kid. I wanted to let you know how much I appreciated you, for always catching the ball, even when my terrible throw didn't deserve it, but most of all, thanks for always watching out for all of the other kids on our corner, including mine. You will always be the fastest kid on the block. Rest in peace young man~ Joe Payne
