

Christopher "Chris" Girkin

July 8, 1969 - September 15, 2019

A funeral service honoring the life of Christopher "Chris" Ronald Girkin will be 1:00 p.m., Thursday, September 19, 2019 at Hayhurst Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will follow at Floral Haven Memorial Gardens. Viewing will be at the funeral home on Wednesday from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. with family there to receive visitors from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Chris was born in Wichita, Kansas on Tuesday, July 8, 1969 to Charles and Deborah (Watts) Girkin. Chris left this earth on Sunday, September 15, 2019 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma at the age of 50.

Chris married Michelle Moore and together they shared many happy years. Chris adored his family and loved spending time with them. Chris worked as Lead Computer Programmer for FWT Drafting –Sabre FWT. Chris was a hard worker and excelled in his work with computers.

Chris loved to draw and from the time he could hold a pencil or pen, something would appear on paper. Since he loved cats, they were numerous in his drawings. He started drawing pictures of the Lord with children and held talks to children in a church in Texas while drawing the story. Chris' family will miss him deeply and always remember him.

Chris is survived by,

Father, Ron Girkin, Broken Arrow, OK

Mother, Deborah Girkin, Broken Arrow, OK

Brother, Joshua Girkin and Kristina, Lawrence, KS

Zachary Girkin and Ashley, Broken Arrow, OK

Grandmother, Jeanette Redman, Broken Arrow, OK

Several aunts, uncles and cousins

Chris was preceded in death by wife, Michelle Moore, and sister Heather Girkin.
