“ Clara is my cousin. I have happy childhood memories of spending a week during the summers at the Henry home. Clara is a few years older than I am. I remember her teaching me how to style my hair and passing on to me her clothes. I deeply regret letting time and busy life getting in the way of keeping in touch with my dear, sweet cousin. I will always remember her generosity and kindness to me. She will surely be missed!

“ I have very fond memories and a high respect of Ms. Clara as is what I called her in the days of Girl Scouts....Such a wonderful person to be my leader, she always had a smile on her face and made those years really fun...all my love goes out to her family in this time of grief in losing someone so dear...
