

Clint Wayne Cherry

September 2, 1974 - January 4, 2016

Private family services are planned for Clint W. Cherry.

Clint Wayne Cherry was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on September 2, 1974 to Ronald Cherry and Denise Mitchell. Clint graduated from Broken Arrow High School and went on to attend Plumbing Apprenticeship School. After completing his education, he earned a position with R&W Contractors as a Contract Plumber.

Clint married Kim Fenton and their union was blessed with two sons, Corrigan Wade Cherry and Ty Benjamin Cherry. Clint was a wonderful father and he loved spending time with his boys. An outdoors man at heart, Clint loved fishing and deer hunting. He was also a big OU Football fan and never missed a game. The family requests donations be made to John 3:16 Mission at 506 N. Cheyenne Ave., Tulsa, OK 74103.

“ I hadnt seen you in at least a decade but hearing about this today "ROCKED ME"!! Hanging out with you and Clint Collins while the both of you were trying to be bull riders makes me smile and laugh everytime I think about it!! I remember going pond hopping and drinking beers ...drinking more than fishing if I recall!! You were a stand up guy and you will never be forgotten...RIP. ..Colby Caughron
