

Constance A. Chaput

June 21, 1937 - June 29, 2017

A mass of Christian burial for Constance Antoinette Chaput will be 1:00 p.m., Thursday, July 6, 2017 at St. Anne's Catholic Church. Burial will follow at Park Grove Cemetery. A prayer vigil will be held the night before, 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, July 5, 2017 at Hayhurst Funeral Home.

Connie was born in Manhattan, New York on June 21, 1937 to Anthony and Mary (Vilegi) Stesney. She grew up in Middle Village, Queens, and subsequently lived in Lancaster, Pennsylvania; Ocala, Florida; and finally Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Connie passed away at her home on Thursday, June 29, 2017 at the age of 80.

Connie attended Grover Cleveland High School in New York where she graduated with the class of 1955. Connie was an accomplished retail salesperson and worked in several department stores, including Dillard's in Woodland Hills Mall for 10 years.

On April 14, 1956 Connie married Henry Chaput in Queens, New York. Their union was blessed with three sons. Connie was a loving and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She adored her family and loved spending time with them.

Connie had many hobbies to keep her busy. She liked to crochet and enjoyed sewing with friends in her sewing group. She loved reading, enjoyed going to the movies and was involved with the Senior Center of Broken Arrow. Connie, of Polish decent, learned to cook Polish food and created special dishes like her family before her.

Memorials may be made to St. Francis Hospice, 6600 South Yale Ave., Suite #350, Tulsa, OK 74136.

Connie is survived by,

Children, Stephen Chaput, Broken Arrow, OK
