“ Many of us at Cedar Ridge Christian Church worked alongside of Connie in the Kitchen for many Wednesday night dinners and church dinners in our history. She was a vital part of hospitality service in our church family and out. We loved her, her beautiful smile and positive attitude. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Blessed indeed," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!" Rev. 14:13 Your sisters at Cedar Ridge.

“ I got acquainted with Connie many years ago while employed at a local downtown bank and she was employed with the Tulsa Tribune newspaper in the advertising department. She was always courteous, professional and so pleasant. I'm fairly sure I saw her in the last 18 months at a local bunco fundraising event and such a pleasant reunion. A very nice lady who is missed.

She was my best friend ever when she lived in Shawnee, Kansas. Every day was crazy but she was able to handle everything, even a jammed garbage disposal that turned the television antenna on the roof. We put our kids in the backseat and cruised the entire Kansas City, looking at stuff. I thought she would live forever. Elizabeth Cook
