“ What a crock of shit. these people don't know the real Curtis. Ask his fellow employees about his work life and who he tried to kill. Ask his little friend Libby about it. It's sad to see how many people he's fooled. He died with a lot of secrets apparently or you all are just as stupid as he is, or was lol.

“ I'll always have so many great memories of going to see Uncle Curtis and Aunt Sharon while I was growing up. And I'll always look up to Curtis as a man who took care of his family and his employees. He was generous, and loved God's beautiful creation. He even let me ride his horses! So glad my kids got to meet him a few years ago. He will be missed, God rest his soul.

“ *Dear Sharon and family,
I would much rather be sharing memories at a more happy occasion, but there have been many years passed by since we lived together as neighbors in Broken Arrow. Our children are considered middle age. Angela lives in Virginia Beach, VA with 2 of our grand girls and Regina just moved to San Antonio with 1 grand girl. They are growing up and we are growing old!*

We are so sorry about Curt! I wish I had words to speak, but only God can bring you real comfort. Your children and grandchildren seem to be close so lean on them when possible.

We are doing well. Tremendously blessed is all I can say.

*Our Love, thoughts and prayers.

It was our great privilege to call Curtis our life long friend. He and Sharon exemplified love, hard work, faith and family values. We are heartbroken he is gone so soon. He was grace under pressure, and he leaves behind enduring memories of only love and joy. We will never forget him ever. David and Pam Hale
