

D'Etta Nail

December 6, 1941 - July 22, 2025

D'Etta Nail, a longtime resident of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, went to be in the presence of the Lord on July 22, 2025, surrounded by her loving family in the home of her Granddaughter Kylie in Broken Arrow.

D'Etta was born on December 6, 1941, in Grass Valley, California, to Orvil D. (O.D.) Fritz and Mary Etta (Eddie) Fritz. Not long after her birth, the family moved to Vinita, Oklahoma, where D'Etta attended school and graduated from Vinita High School in 1959. Later she met the love of her life, Ken Nail. The two were married on September 11, 1960, at Trinity Baptist Church in Vinita—a church lovingly built by her father.

Ken and D'Etta settled in the Tulsa/Broken Arrow area, where they raised their three sons and built a life rooted in faith, family, and adventure.

D'Etta's love for music began early; she learned to play the pump organ as a child and often sang alongside her father and younger sister. She later honed her musical talents and played the piano for church services for many years, continuing to share her gift with others.

D'Etta also had a passion for the outdoors and cherished the many camping trips she and Ken took with their children. Summers were often spent trout fishing on the White River in Arkansas, or camping at family reunions on Lake Hudson, making memories that would last a lifetime.

D'Etta is survived by her beloved husband of nearly 65 years, Ken Nail; her three sons, Monty Nail and wife Tracy, Rocky Nail, and Dirk Nail and wife Melisa; her siblings, Mike Fritz and wife Mary, Kyle Fritz and wife Kristy, and Debbie Davis and husband Scott; four grandchildren, Kylie, Casey, Taylor, and Hunter; three great-grandchildren, Chett, Cole, and Carter; and numerous cherished nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Orvil. D. and Eddie Fritz.

Ken and D'Etta regularly attended Southwood Bible Church, in Tulsa OK.

Funeral services will be held at Southwood Bible Church, 7655 S Sheridan Rd, Tulsa, OK 74133 Tuesday, July 29, 2025, at 2PM
