Daisy was born in Verden, Oklahoma on August 15, 1934 to Frank and Savannah (Dunlap) Tippett. Daisy passed away in her home in Broken Arrow on Friday, July 20, 2018 at the age of 83.

At the age of 16, Daisy married Graydon Honeyman and their union was blessed with two sons. They were married for 25 years until Graydon's death in 1975. Daisy was a homemaker for those 25 years but later became a sales associate for Dillard's, achieving recognition as a Pacesetter for multiple years. Daisy was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She adored her family, loved spending time with them and always put them ahead of herself. Daisy was loved by everyone who knew her.

Helping people was important to Daisy and she volunteered for many years in the Emergency Room at Hillcrest and also for Meals on Wheels where she delivered meals to people in need. As a devoted Christian, she served faithfully in her church singing in the choir and teaching Sunday School.

Memorials may be made to St. Francis Hospice, 6600 S. Yale Ave., #350, Tulsa, OK 74136 or to Meals on Wheels, 12620 E. 31st St., Tulsa, OK 74146.

“ I met Daisy 49 years ago when I was 16. She was so beautiful & young looking , I couldn't believe it was Scott's mom! We had so many fun times together, she was the mom I never had! I loved her deeply. She was always there to help me when I needed her. We always had long talks & she listened to me. She was a great granny to my kids & grandkids. They all loved & adored her. She supported them in all their soccer, baseball, football & basketball games & all their school activities. I appreciated her so much for supporting them! For the last 5 months, she was my companion. I will miss her so much. She pops in my had quite often & I cry. I hate demengia & it took her down so quick. I know she's with our Heavenly Father now. She's with Pappy. I can see them holding hands again. Yes it's so hard to loose her, but we have a peace knowing she's in heaven waiting on us someday! Love you memaw! I will definitely miss you!

“Granny has been the only grandparent present in my life. She always loved me, supported me, encouraged me in everything I did & always called me Heather Katie which I loved. Granny lived her life for the lord and it showed in whatever she did or said. Granny was a great example how to treat everyone fairly and love and respect everyone. I am truly heartbroken but I have peace knowing she is in heaven w/ grandpa and is no longer in pain. I will miss her terribly but will do my best to live my life like granny lived hers and to carry on her legacy. I love you granny and always will 💕
