“ Darien, my sweet husband. The most wonderful man in world. He literally made me laugh every single day. Every time I saw him, I couldn't help getting a huge smile on my face. He made me so happy & always made me feel like the most important, prettiest, loved person in the world. I know he is at peace now and I look forward to seeing him again. He was the love of my life. No one could compare. Rest in peace my love.

“ A kind caring personable man who would always make you smile and forget your troubles at least for a little while. My husband and I are truly sad about hearing of Darien's passing. We always looked forward to seeing him at Reasors when we shopped. He always remembered our names and our previous conversations we had. My heart goes out to Darien's family. Knowing Darien was truly a gift.

“ I’m so heart broken. To such an amazing man to everybody and anybody that crossed paths with. You showed me what it truly means to have a father figure in my life. From a small little kid u watched me grow into the powerful young woman I am today. You way always full of laughs and jokes. It was never a dull moment with this man. You was such a big part of my family Darien not only that but a big inspiration to me personally. Now that you’re in heaven I want you to continue to be a happy man and telling all them awful little jokes you have. I will never forget you Darien and I will never forget the fact you made effort out your own day to come watch me graduate. You built me and you don’t even know it. It will never be a goodbye but a see you later forever my friend 🕊️
