David Lavern Roberts Jr., of Broken Arrow, passed away Friday, June 14, 2019 at the age of 67.

David was born Tuesday, April 22, 1952 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to David Sr. and Mildred (Pergeson) Roberts. On August 4, 1972, David married the love of his life and high school sweetheart Laresa Renfro in Orange County, California and their union was blessed with 2 children. Son Cory and daughter Candice.

David was a member of The Sons of the American Legion Post in The Colony, Texas. He loved spending time with his family. They often spent weekends at the lake or little Sahara. He loved working with his hands, playing computer games, mowing his yard, and wood working. His German shepherds were like his children and he was often heard saying that "I may grow old, but I will never grow up."

David's daughter Candice wrote of her dad "I lost my daddy yesterday. He had the biggest heart of anyone I know. He did everything he could to make everyone around him happy and feel loved because that's what made him happy. He was the man that always told me how proud of me he was, always told me he loved me, always kissed my forehead and gave me a great big hug. I can't stop crying. I can't believe he is gone forever. I was a daddy's girl.

Just to say that in past tense makes me cry harder. I want one more hug, one more kiss, one more I Love You So Much. I keep calling his phone to hear his voice. I miss him so much. My heart is broken.”
