“ I personally only have a few memories of David as we've always lived so far away from you guys. However, I've heard and continue to hear endless stories of Seth and David growing up and they are always sure to make everyone laugh.

The memory that I love most is when our Carsen was 2 years old until he was probably 4 years old (almost 20 years ago), Carsen would always ask Seth to call his "cowboy brover wif dat boice" (cowboy brother with that voice). At that time, Carsen hadn't met David yet, and he was such a shy little boy it was very, very much unlike him to want to talk to anyone on the phone, especially someone he didn't know but David was different. Carsen would talk for minute and then he just sat and listened to him talk and his accent would make Carsen laugh like it was the funniest, yet the coolest thing he had ever heard. When Carsen was small, he definitely wanted nothing more than to have a real fast race car and a voice like Uncle David's. 💙

I also remember when yall came out here to visit, we took you guys on a little road trip to Wendover to do some Gambling. Although none of us came back rich from that trip to the casinos, we had a good time spending the day with you guys. I'm so happy that we were all able to meet David all those years ago. ❤️

“ Bro. David was the picture of a changed life because of His salvation in Jesus Christ. His joy was contagious and it was an honor to know him. I have a memory of him that makes me smile even to this day: David was not one of the "normal" special singers, but I still remember when he and Jennifer sang for the first time in church. The song was "O Happy Day" and they sang it with such joy and sincerity, evidencing the truth in their lives that Jesus HAD indeed washed their sins away. It makes me smile even now to think of it. I will continue to think of David when I hear and sing it myself. How precious to think that one more voice is now singing in Heaven's choir and that we will rejoice one day soon again together of that happy day that Jesus washed our sins away! Our prayers are with his family. We love you Jennifer.

"O Happy Day"

*O happy that fixed my choice on Thee, my Saviour and my God!
Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad.
Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away!
He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoicing every day;
Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away!*

“ I had the privilege of knowing David for eight years, and in that time, it was clear he was a man of profound kindness and deep faith. He lived his Christian values every day, dedicated to helping others and loving his wife of 20 years with his whole heart. He was so proud to build a life with her, from putting her through nursing school to buying their first home together.

It feels profoundly unfair to say goodbye to such a good man at just 46. After a courageous fight against one of the rarest cancers, he has found his ultimate peace. My heart breaks for his wife, his true partner through everything. We will remember his generous spirit and the light he brought to so many.

“Bro. Dave will truly be missed. He left us with countless memories and so many laughs — always quick with a funny story or a wise word. One of our favorite moments with him was the last couple’s banquet... a night filled with joy, laughter, and his unforgettable presence. Until we meet again on a mansion just over the hilltop, Brother Dave.
