“ Hey sis another year has come and gone and I miss you still so much. I miss all the laughs and fun we had! I woke myself up last night calling your name. We kept each other young and had so much fun! Your grandson is a sweetie. He started a new school and now has some friends across the street in the hood. I will be seeing you! Sending hugs and love always . Lil sis

“ Hi sissy! Today is our birthday and I've been so sad. I think we missed celebrating our birthday together twice the whole time we were growing up and it's just not the same. I miss you daily! I watch Graham almost every Friday and we have so much fun. He definitely knows who his memow was. He's a very smart little guy. I miss the fun and trouble we used to get into. It's just not the same without you! I love you sis ❤️ and Hugs

“ My heart breaks over Debbie's passing. My memories started in 1970 when I moved to Tulsa. We met soon after my arrival and made lots of wonderful memories, especially when we all lived together in your Mom and Dad's house. Lots of laughter and a few tears, but true friendship. Debbie had a heart of gold, loved to laugh and brighten up a room. I love you dear friend and I love this family. Praying for all of you. Pam Webb

“ Diane, sorry to hear about Debbie's passing. I remember when I had just bought my Chevelle SS396 and Debbie talked me into letting her driving it. Well it didn't end well she slid into a curb and ruined the front wheel and tire. I only had it for about a week. I also remember when you ask me to drive my car somewhere telling me you were Debbie, you sly fox!! Again sorry to hear about Debbie's passing.

WOW I have so many memories of you both. Spending the night with you and laughing all night. the time we went to your aunt so she could frost our hair all at the same time! We mostly cried during that! When Lewis and I moved away 37 years ago I lost touch. But I will cherish all of the fun memories.God Bless

Diana, you may not remember me, but I will never forget you and Deborah, and I have wondered so many times through the years where you guys were. Turns out, you live within a mile of where my husband and I have lived for nearly 4 years. I grew up thinking of you two as big sisters and I loved you dearly. With all the abuse and negative attention we got at home, you meant the world to me. I just wish I could have gotten back in touch with you while you were both alive and well. I am praying for you.

“ Diana, not sure if you remember, but my Dad had an identical twin. The morning after my Dad passed on, his twin walked into the room and gave me a massive hug. It felt like he never wanted to let go and his comment was heartbreaking. He told me that he had lost his "other half". I can only imagine that you feel like that too. Words seem so inadequate - sending you and everyone in the family a virtual hug, thoughts and prayers. Love, hugs and rainbows, Panda
