“ *Dear Noreen and Family,
I just read yesterday's paper and was shocked to learn of Deryle's death. I am so very, very sorry. I'm so sorry that I missed visitation and the memorial service. I would have been there for sure!!!!
Deryle and my husband, Bob, spent years on the links together as well as having UPS as a common thread. Bob also enjoyed golfing with Deryle and the Sandblasters. I had hoped that Deryle would keep up with our children and keep telling funny stories of their dad. He did write them a letter when Bob died suddenly in 2002. It is a cherished keepsake. May you find peace in the coming days. It's not easy. I'm sure that Deryle, my husband Bob, and my brother, Ed also a Sandblaster, are hitting those rare holes in one on the greatest golf coarse ever!
Sincerely,
JaneAnne Knight*

Dear JaneAnne

Thank you for your kind words of condolences. It is a very trying time for myself and my children as you yourself understand completely. It is never easy to lose a spouse who has been the other half of you, father and grandfather. Deryle hasn't golf in the last year and a half because of difficulty walk for even short periods.

Deryle loved Bob like a brother. They so enjoyed playing different golf courses and just hanging out. I know he missed Bob and his other golfing buddy Don Elrod who passed away while driving his feeder tractor. In fact that was the last time I saw Bob. I do like thinking that he's getting to play golf again with Bob and Don. So sorry you missed the service. It was beautiful and I like to believe that Deryle would have been pleased. Thank you again for your kind words. My prayers and blessings to you and your family.

*Sincerely,
Noreen Cook & Family*
