

Dianna Rebeck

June 26, 1970 - August 14, 2022

Miss Dianna Lynn Rebeck, 52, of Broken Arrow, passed away Sunday evening in Tulsa. She was born in Denver, Colorado on June 26, 1970 to Henry and Barbara (Buel) Rebeck. She was preceded in death by her parents.

She loved to travel around the world but her favorite destination was Paris. She had plans to even travel to Asia and South Korea. She's always had a special place in her heart for China and wanted to one day adopt from there. She had a very eclectic taste in music. She would listen to everything from Gregorian chant music to K-Pop. Her least favorite was Country but she tolerated it on occasion for her sister. Her favorite band was MonstaX and she wanted to be able to see them in concert one day. Her dogs Ginger, Nina, Bella, Gracie and Bear brought her great joy in life. She also enjoyed knitting, crocheting, scrapbooking, watching International films and TV, and was always learning about other cultures. She has touched so many people and never even realized just how much of a difference she made in each person's life.

A funeral service honoring her life will be held 10 am, Saturday, August 20 at Hayhurst Funeral Home with burial at Park Grove Cemetery at a later date.

Those left to cherish her memory are:

Sister Michell Rebeck of Broken Arrow

Brother Bill Rebeck and wife Anne Hofmann-Rebeck of Washington, Missouri

Nephew Aaron Wadkins

Uncle Don Buel and wife Carolyn

The family will receive friends Friday, August 19 from 6-8pm at Hayhurst Funeral Home. The family has asked to memorial contributions be made to Compassion International at www.compassion.com/donate.

Dianna and I were cube mates at AA and we became good friends! We had the same trouble with bronchitis, we used to tell each other don't cough, you'll make me cough and smile at each other. She helped teach me crochet and knitting. She was the same age as my daughter, I told she could be my daughter...she was special. The world is missing an angel and a dear friend. ❤️❤️

“ My heart is breaking. Dianna was the sweetest friend. I enjoyed our time together working at American Airlines. We had many laughs over our lunch breaks. I also had fun with her and Michell on our trips to Germany for the Christmas Markets.

I was Blessed to call Dianna my friend.

Michell, please call me if you need anything or want to talk or have lunch.

May Jesus wrap you in his arms and give you comfort.

REST IN PEACE, SWEET DIANNA!

Sending love and prayers,
