

Dianne Ramay

August 6, 1963 - June 12, 2026

Dianne Rene Ramay was born on Tuesday, August 6, 1963 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa to parents, Billy Paul and JoAnn (Thompson) Bell. She went to meet her Lord and Savior from Tulsa, Oklahoma on Friday, June 12, 2026 at the age of 62.

Dianne was one of four children and graduated from Union High School in 1981. She went on to further her education and obtained her Associates degree in Music from Southwestern Assemblies of God University. She met the love of her life, Keith Edward Ramay, and the two married on Saturday, June 22, 1985 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. They formed an inseparable bond throughout life and raised three children. Dianne was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother – obsessed with her remarkable grandchildren. Her family was her whole world.

Musically gifted, Dianne served as a music minister for most of her adult life. She was a beautiful pianist with a lovely voice, and her smile and personality could brighten any room. She loved Jesus deeply, and that love was evident in the way she worshiped, served, prayed, and cared for others. Dianne was a faithful prayer warrior whose life reflected selfless devotion to God and genuine compassion for people. She consistently put the needs of others before her own, leaving a lasting impact on everyone who knew her. She had a special way of noticing those who felt overlooked or alone and was naturally drawn to them, offering friendship, encouragement, and kindness. Whether through a conversation, a prayer, or simply her presence, she made people feel seen, valued, and loved.

Dianne was incredibly talented and creative, especially when it came to embroidery, crafting, and hands-on projects. She loved creating meaningful gifts for family and friends and found great joy in blessing others through her work. Whether she was designing something beautiful, tackling a woodworking project, or taking on a demolition and renovation task, Dianne was always ready to figure out how to solve a problem. She was resourceful, determined, and never afraid to learn something new if it meant finding a better way forward. Dianne also treasured the memories she made traveling across the United States with Keith, enjoying adventures together and making the most of every journey.

“ Dianne generosity in pouring into others while fighting her own battles was remarkable and inspiring. She was the kind of person who would take time out of her day to pray over me or send me a quick message, even when she was carrying burdens of her own. Her encouragement was refreshing, uplifting, and genuine. The way she loved and supported others challenged me to be a better person myself. Her life was a beautiful example of selflessness, faith, and grace, and I will always be grateful for the impact she had on mine.
