Donald Ray Foshee was born on April 9, 1927 in Paris, Arkansas, the son of Jesse Abram Foshee and Annie Mae (Lile) Foshee. He was one of eight children. He passed away on July 31, 2024.

“ When they were young married men, Uncle Don and my dad were special friends, as well as being married to a couple of the Redding sisters. When the coal mines closed in Paris, ARK, they traveled together to OK to look for work. Uncle Don and family stayed in OK, but my dad and family went on to East TX. Oh, the stories they told!

Don could oftentimes be found walking around playing his harmonica. He and Linda were fast friends and played music alot together, along with some other residents. I had the pleasure of jamming with them one day last winter. He will be missed. A long life, well lived.
