

Doris Jean Teachman

July 14, 1937 - October 6, 2016

Doris Jean Teachman was born in Treece, Kansas, on July 14, 1937, to George and Louise (Harris) Young. She was reared alongside her two brothers and one sister. Jean spent most of her adult life working as a nurse aide. She earned her Certified Nursing Assistant certification while working at a nursing home.

Jean married William (Bill) Cowen and their union was blessed with a son, Steve. Bill passed away in September of 1975. Nearly 25 years later, Jean married Chuck Teachman. The couple resided in Grove, OK, prior to Chuck's death in 2006.

While living in Grove, Jean was an active volunteer at the Grand Lake Senior Center in Grove. After moving to Broken Arrow, OK in 2008, Jean became a member of Aspen Park Baptist Church.

Jean was also an animal lover, who particularly loved cats and dogs. In her free time she liked being outdoors and fishing was a favorite pastime. Jean was friendly and fun; and always enjoyed laughing and being a little ornery.

Memorials may be made in Doris' name to Aspen Park Baptist Church, 4400 S. Aspen Ave., Broken Arrow, OK 74011.

Jean is survived by,

Son, Steve Cowen and wife Lani, Broken Arrow, OK

Step-daughters, Gaylene Kalagias and husband Pete, Munford, TN

Glenda Funk and husband Ken, Pocatello, ID

Grandchildren, Chastity, Brad, Kenny, Corey and Samantha

5 Great Grandchildren,

Brother, Jack Young and wife Fina, Irving, TX

Mike Young and wife Sherry, Webb City, MO

Sister, Mary Bullis and husband Mike, Ft. Meyers, FL

Numerous nieces, nephews and other loving family and friends.

Jean was preceded in death by her husbands and parents.

Tribute Wall

“ Doris Jean Teachman

October 23, 2023 at 01:21 AM

“ It is our honor and privilege to serve the Teachman family and to provide this permanent tribute website in memory of Doris Teachman.

Hayhurst Funeral Home - October 07, 2016 at 10:13 AM