“ Dottie will be missed on this earth but we know that she is in Heaven with Jesus and some family members that went before her. My family and I knew Dottie for 21 years and she was always there for us through good and bad. We love you, Dottie. Until we meet again.

“ My dad, Bill Clark, Sr., married Dottie later in life, after I was an adult, so our relationship was a deep friendship based on her kindness, the great things she did for my dad, and the love and friendship that she shared so freely with me, my family, and for that matter, everyone she met! She was one of those unique people that had a huge heart for those around her and for God. I can say with great confidence that she loved my dad with all her heart and brought joy, companionship, and stability to him as they traveled around the U.S. during the last part of his working years as a construction superintendent and afterwards when he retired for the second time (he retired from the Air Force in the 1970's). After his death in 2007, Dottie was heart broken and we talked on numerous occasions about how much she missed him. So, although there is a gaping hole with her passing for those of us that are left behind, I know she is smiling alongside my dad at being reunited on God's golden shore. May God bless you Dottie for being a shining light for my Dad and so many others. // Tearfully, Bill Clark Jr.
